A Global Platform for Better Trading Decisions and More Effective Collateral Management

To prosper in today's fast-paced global securities finance world, you need all the efficiencies you can get. Disparate groups of securities lending, repo and derivatives teams, split across regions and operating without an integrated collateral management model, only add to the pressure.

FIS® Securities Finance Suite levels the siloes and eliminates redundant, inefficient processes so you can maximize top line returns. With a global platform and a real-time view, you can efficiently utilize and optimize inventory across the firm to monetize your assets, make more informed trading decisions and manage collateral more effectively.

Bring together the power of our best-of-breed products for securities lending, repo, market data and collateral management. Choose from preconfigured or customizable solution options for your unique needs.

Maximize your growth with the know-how of one trusted partner and the commitment of the world's leading fintech provider.

MAXIMIZE LIQUIDITY AND LENDING RETURNS

Whether you're on the supply or demand side, count on our comprehensive range of market data, securities finance and collateral management solutions to help you run smarter and capitalize on opportunities.

MEET GLOBAL REGULATIONS AND LOCAL COMPLIANCE

Securities Finance Suite helps you guard against regulatory risk by eliminating manual processes and errors through increased automation and connectivity.

ENSURE CONNECTIVITY TO MARKET INFRASTRUCTURE

Easily connect to new digital channels or other critical infrastructure via our open APIs. Avoid large-scale technology replacements by choosing just the components you need.
