A complete automated solution for ceded reinsurance management

As reinsurance plays a more prominent role in reducing risk, ceded contracts are also increasing in quantity and complexity. Without fully automated systems and processes, you can struggle to calculate and track reinsurance efficiently. And you won't get the transparency you need to keep your operation healthy and your money hard at work.

FIS® Reinsurance Manager (formerly ProCede) provides a complete, centralized solution for ceded reinsurance management, with the automated, auditable infrastructure it takes to improve efficiency, deepen analytics and standardize information.

Scalable and source-independent, Reinsurance Manager provides secure, repeatable processes for contract maintenance, billing, and operational, financial and statutory reporting. So, you can streamline your reinsurance operations, unlock insights for more informed strategic decisions and improve productivity to make your money work harder.

Bill and pay automatically

Integrating seamlessly with your general ledger and supporting multiple billing document formats, Reinsurance Manager automates both accounts payable and accounts receivable processes, as well as the aging of payables and receivables, and open balance monitoring.
