Globally, the number of real-time payment schemes continues to grow. A new FIS Global Payments Report, among other findings, reveals that APAC, Latin America and the Middle East saw the highest growth in real-time schemes in 2021.

The Country Realm

A country-by-country analysis reveals the fastest growth in Asia Pacific, Africa and the Middle East, but that’s not the full picture.

Global Movers and Shakers in Real-time Payments

According to The Global Payments Report, 2022, almost three-quarters of the world's population (around 72%) have—or will soon have—access to instant payments. Globally, the number of real-time payment schemes continues to grow.

ROW

Latin America
- Brazil: Launching modernized real-time clearing service (MBSP/Dتجاوز من العملة) driving growth.
- Colombia: Implementing real-time payment solutions supported by use-case innovation, inclusion and expansion.
- Mexico: Launching government payments through open APIs.
- Argentina: FPC launching real-time payments service.

APAC
- UAE and/or other countries: Other parties’ marks are the property of their respective owners.
- Indonesia and New Zealand launching soon real-time payments platforms.
- Cross-border in APAC: International real-time in Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia and New Zealand launching soon.
- Thailand: Strong government support to bring more citizens into digital finance.

Europe
- RTP (real-time payments) from The Clearing House live 2017 open to all U.S. banks.
- Zelle consumer P2P service backed by network of U.S. banks.

Latam
- Brazil: Launching modernized real-time clearing service (MBSP/Dتجاوز من العملة) driving growth.
- Colombia: Implementing real-time payment solutions supported by use-case innovation, inclusion and expansion.
- Mexico: Launching government payments through open APIs.
- Argentina: FPC launching real-time payments service.

APAC
- RTP (real-time payments) from The Clearing House live 2017 open to all U.S. banks.
- Zelle consumer P2P service backed by network of U.S. banks.

Global and sector leaders will gather at the Global Payments Forum, November 9-10, 2022, in London to discuss the latest trends and future innovation in real-time payments.