

DISBURSE PAY

The one-to-many payment solution

FIS Disburse Pay is a new business-to-consumer solution that offers a secure way for your corporate customers to electronically distribute disbursement payments to many recipients with real-time capability.

Solution Highlights

Easy Payment Distribution

A batch file that includes the contact information of your corporate customer's recipients is used to electronically distribute disbursement payments to almost anyone with a U.S. bank account.

Quick Payment Notification

FIS notifies your corporate customer's recipients in an email or text message with instructions to claim the payment.

Secure Claim Portal

Your corporate customer's recipients can easily claim payments using a secure website hosted by FIS.

Multiple Claim Options

Your corporate customer's recipients can enter either a debit card number or account and routing number eliminating the delays of sending a paper check. If money is claimed using a debit card, the money is moved in real time. If claimed using the account information, the ACH transaction will likely go out same day.

Benefits

Disburse Pay can provide new a revenue opportunity and an advantage over your competitors, and deployment is simple.

Disburse Pay helps reduce the need for paper checks, lowering costs and fraud risks.

Checks frequently targeted in fraudulent activity

Risk Management

Your organization can define the expiration date of the payment and provide the business entity with payment tracking.

Additionally, payments are protected with a built-in authentication feature in the claim website. Business entities can require Disburse Pay recipients provide an answer to a security or authentication question that is defined by the business entity.

Ongoing FIS Support

Included with Disburse Pay is training for your staff before and after implementation, 24/7 support services, and our comprehensive support tool, Customer Service Tool (CST).

Promotional support to assist with the introduction of Disburse Pay to your corporate customers can be included for an additional fee.
