

FIS EXECUTION SERVICES

An Agency-focused Broker with Customized Algorithms That Can Help Improve Your Execution

Are your broker's algorithms picking the right price and time to trade? Or are they tracking a benchmark rather than the best price?

FIS® Execution Services is an agency-focused broker providing customized algorithms that can help to improve execution quality, minimize information leakage and decrease your execution costs. With no bias toward execution venues, our high-performing algorithms help seek and secure the best possible price. Embedded Trader Logic technology and short-term alpha signals blend a professional trader's human logic with precise mathematical formulas to seek profitable trading opportunities within the context of each algorithm's strategy.

Our range of algorithms includes a percent of volume strategy that controls execution pace, as well as volume-specific strategies targeting best execution. Whatever your strategy, Execution Services can help you make the best decisions.

EXPERIENCE ADVANCED TRADING TECHNOLOGY

Our advanced trading technology can help you improve execution quality, minimize information leakage and reduce your overall execution costs.

HARNESS THE HUMAN LOGIC OF A PROFESSIONAL TRADER

We offer high-performance algorithms that blend the human logic of a professional trader with precise mathematical formulas and with no bias toward execution venues.

BENEFIT FROM A CUSTOMIZED ALGORITHM PER STOCK

Our short-term alpha signals are used to build an algorithm for each stock. Then we overlay the trading benchmark you pick.

ACCESS DARK VENUES

Grab hidden liquidity with a single input for picking your spot within the spread.

MAXIMIZE LIQUIDITY DISCOVERY

Using a combination of our short-term alpha signals and our customized heat map by symbol and side, you can employ stealth strategies that are tailored to your needs and trading style, creating dynamic liquidity seeking that allows you to absorb liquidity within reasonable price movements.

CUSTOMIZE YOUR TRADING

Set up multiple contingent participation levels and dynamic reactions to price changes for a single trade by using an underlying algorithm that adjusts based on your inputs.

CONFIGURE WITH LIQUIDITY-TAKING LOGIC

Experience liquidity-taking logic that adapts to a variety of real-time factors, including order attributes, volume, price movement, market conditions and venue analysis.

ACCESS INTER-LISTED NAMES IN THE US AND CANADIAN MARKETS

Market data and microstructure information unique to Canada is embedded with specific Trader Logic technology in our Canadian algorithms. When you trade U.S. or Canadian symbols in inter-listed names, you can enjoy the benefits of accessing liquidity in both markets wherever the best price exists.

Helping to improve your execution quality.
