

FIS TRANSACTION COST ANALYZER

The Analytics Platform That Helps Improve Execution Performance

As new broker, algorithm and liquidity venues develop, you need to evaluate your orders and adjust your strategy for best results.

FIS® Transaction Cost Analyzer assesses your trade executions and provides clear analysis to help you improve your execution performance. It delivers the data, reports and measurements you need to identify the optimal execution strategy for your trade routes based on historical data and custom benchmarks.

You can aggregate and normalize trade data into a comprehensive and interactive report, and measure cost and performance against industry-standard benchmarks. You can also monitor execution performance on multiple levels to find ways to improve your trading execution.
