

FIS CONVERTIBLE BOND SERVICES

Your End-to-End Convertible Bonds Solution

Even in the best of times, convertibles and equity-linked instruments require sophisticated analysis and specialist handling throughout their life cycle. In a challenging, highly volatile market, you need a convertibles solution that will help you master complexity and risk and ensure streamlined integration, regulatory compliance and fast, accurate reporting.

FIS® Convertible Bond Services is an end-to-end life-cycle solution for a wide variety of equity linked instruments, including convertibles, exchangeables, PEPS, warrants and Capital Contingent (AT1) bonds, and their associated hedging instruments. The innovative software increases the efficiency and transparency of all your convertible instrument operations.

Powered by an integrated managed data service that's curated by specialists, Convertible Bond Services optimizes your business across deal pricing and data issuance, idea generation, sales and trading, regulatory compliance and reporting, and portfolio and risk management. It features efficient pricing mechanisms and a robust, transparent approach to tracking ideas, orders and trades to help you quickly identify opportunities and anomalies.
