

FIS RISK SERVICES

A Cloud Service That Makes Complex Analytics Easier and More Affordable

Effective risk management positions firms to meet regulatory requirements, improve margins, and make better trading and investment decisions.

But faced with limited budgets, you don't have the luxury of hiring costly analysts and increasing overhead. You need easy-to-access, cost-effective tools for generating sophisticated calculations and accurate reports. To set yourself apart, you need to think smart about risk and refocus your resources.

FIS® Risk Services takes a new approach to solving risk complexity. The cloud-based service provides fast and transparent solutions for risk management, pricing, analytics, modeling and simulations, calculations and reporting.

Risk Services makes complex XVA, SIMM and risk analytics easier and more affordable for both buy- and sell-side firms. Our highly skilled quantitative experts leverage our award-winning real-time systems to gather and validate data, provide independent valuations, run calculation models and report on results.

MAKE RISK MANAGEMENT MORE AFFORDABLE

Our continually updated Risk Services significantly lowers the cost of adopting the latest risk measures.

ACCESS THE ANALYTICS YOU NEED, THE MOMENT YOU NEED THEM

Our microservices architecture lets you deploy components as your needs change.

CHOOSE THE MODEL THAT'S RIGHT FOR YOU

Augment your team or completely outsource risk management in a managed services model.
