

Agentic Insights Suite

Unlock intelligence with AI

Managing working capital, particularly accounts receivable, is critical to any company’s financial health, especially in times of increasing cost of capital and continued global expansion.

FIS® Agentic Insights Suite transforms raw, siloed data into trusted, actionable intelligence that drives collections, liquidity, cash management and risk decisions with unmatched accuracy and speed.

Quick deployment

- Onboarding in weeks

Scalable

- Plug-and-play architecture for new data sources

Secure

- Enterprise-grade, security-by-design

Conversational interface

- Natural language queries

Agentic Insights Suite is not just automation – it’s autonomy with intelligence. It acts as a central intelligence hub, orchestrating data collection, analysis and decision-making across macroeconomic, microeconomic and geopolitical domains. It integrates with specialized agents to deliver high-fidelity credit risk assessments, enabling institutions to anticipate risk, allocate resources effectively, and respond to dynamic market conditions.

Key capabilities

Advanced reasoning

Leverages AI-powered reasoning agents to perform deep counterparty credit risk analysis, supply chain risk and cash flow forecasting

Global intelligence

Aggregates real-time data from credit bureaus, news, market feeds and geopolitical sources to contextualize risk assessments

Customer-specific insights

Retrieves and integrates customer data to tailor risk evaluations to individual exposures and portfolios

Scenario-driven analysis

Supports user-defined macroeconomic or event-based scenarios to simulate future risk trajectories

Autonomous coordination

Manages task handoffs between agents, ensuring complete data and context before initiating analysis
