

Is Your Hedge Fund Taking The Right Approach to Shadow Accounting?

It's competitive out there. You've got to balance an overcrowded market – hundreds of new hedge funds have launched this year alone – with outperforming passive index funds and innovative new strategies. If you're serious about growth, you shouldn't let your back-office hold you back. So, is shadow accounting right for your firm, and if so, are you approaching it in the best way for your business?
