PAIA MANUAL

5.3.10. the regulations made in terms of section 92¹¹.

5.4. Members of the public can inspect or make copies of the Guide from the offices of the public and private bodies, including the office of the Regulator, during normal working hours.

5.5. The Guide can also be obtained:

5.5.1. upon request to the Information Officer¹²;

5.5.2. from the website of the Regulator (<https://info regulator.org.za/paia-guidelines/>).

5.6. A copy of the Guide is also available in English, for public inspection during normal office hours.

6. HOW TO OBTAIN ACCESS TO RECORDS

6.1. The requester must comply with all procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.

6.2. The requester must complete the relevant request form prescribed in Annexure A of the PAIA Regulations which is available by accessing the following link: <http://www.sahrc.org.za/home/21/files/Form%20C.doc%20August%202013.doc>.

The completed form should be submitted to the Information Officer by email at the contact details given above with a copy to DataRights@fisglobal.com. The form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the record requested and the identity of the requester.

6.3. FIS will process the request within 30 days. The Information Officer may request an extension for a further period of no more than 30 additional days for specific reasons,

¹¹ Section 92(1) of PAIA provides that –“The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, make regulations regarding-

(a) any matter which is required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed;

(b) any matter relating to the fees contemplated in sections 22 and 54;

(c) any notice required by this Act;

(d) uniform criteria to be applied by the information officer of a public body when deciding which categories of records are to be made available in terms of section 15; and which include the request involving (a) a large volume of documents, (b) consultation with other public or private entities, or (c) if the requester has granted an extension in writing. FIS will notify the requester in writing should an extension be required.

(e) any administrative or procedural matter necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Act.”

- 6.4. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information.
- 6.5. When responding to a request, FIS will advise the requester of the access fee to be paid for the information, the format in which access is to be granted and the fact that the requester may lodge an appeal with a court of competent jurisdiction against the access fee charged or format in which access is to be granted.
- 6.6. The requester shall be advised in writing whether access is granted or denied (in whole or in part).
- 6.7. Should the request be granted, the notice will state the access fee (if any) to be paid upon access, the form in which access will be given and further that the requester may lodge a complaint to the Regulator or an application with a court against the access fee to be paid or the form of access granted, and the procedure, including the period allowed, for lodging a complaint to the Regulator or the court application.
- 6.8. Should the request be refused, the notice must state adequate reasons for the refusal, including the provisions of PAIA relied upon, and that the requester may lodge a complaint to the Regulator or an application to a court against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging a complaint to the Regulator or the court application.

7. REFUSAL OF ACCESS

- 7.1. Private Bodies such as FIS Systems South Africa and GL Trade (South Africa) are entitled to refuse a request for information on the following grounds:
 - 7.1.1. Protection of the privacy of a third party, including a deceased individual, if that third party is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person (Section 63(1) of PAIA);

PAIA MANUAL

- 7.1.2. Protection of commercial information of a third party as defined by PAIA, if the record contains (a) trade secrets of that third party, (b) financial, commercial, scientific or technical information other than trade secrets of a third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that third party, and (c) information disclosed in confidence to FIS by a third party, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or would prejudice that third party in commercial competition (Section 64 of PAIA);
 - 7.1.3. Protection of confidential information if the disclosure would constitute a breach of a duty of confidence to a third party in terms of an agreement (Section 65 of PAIA);
 - 7.1.4. Protection of safety of individuals and protection of property (Section 66 of PAIA);
 - 7.1.5. Protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings or subject to legal privilege in any other respect, unless the person so entitled to privilege waives the privilege (Section 67 of PAIA);
 - 7.1.6. Protection of commercial activities of FIS, which includes (a) trade secrets of FIS, (b) financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, disclosure of which could cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of FIS, (c) information, which if disclosed, could put FIS at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition, and (d) a computer programme owned by FIS, and which is protected by copyright (Section 68 of PAIA);
 - 7.1.7. Protection of research information of FIS or a third party on behalf of FIS if the disclosure would expose the third party, FIS, the researcher or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage (Section 69 of PAIA); and
 - 7.1.8. Frivolousness or vexatiousness requests that clearly involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.
- 7.2. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not
