

FIS PAYMENTS ONE CREDIT

A full suite of solutions and services for modern credit card programs

As money moves between banks, consumers, businesses and beyond in a complex, never-ending cycle, credit cards continue to play a leading role in the payment experience.

For financial institutions, credit cards are becoming increasingly critical to attracting customers and achieving top-of-wallet status.

But budgets are tight, competition from fintechs and neobanks is fierce, regulatory change is intensifying and cardholders expect rich digital experiences from card issuers. Do you have what it takes to run a successful card program from end to end?

FIS® Payments One Credit rises to the challenge on your behalf by providing a single, modular platform for modern credit card processing.

With cloud-based solutions and services, Payments One Credit takes on as much – or as little – of your credit card program as you need, from card issuing and management to customer support and loyalty programs.

Trust truly modern, always-on technology

With unparalleled system availability, modern APIs and a user-friendly interface, Payments One Credit allows you to easily integrate with and benefit from the latest digital capabilities so you can work smarter and faster.

Streamline card processing

A choice of value-added services means FIS can manage a whole program on your behalf or bolster in-house capabilities with support for processing, your back office, digital experiences and marketing.

Increase insight

Analytics solutions will unlock the potential of your data to help you improve your operations, reduce costs, personalize the customer experience and differentiate your services.

Unlock competitive advantage from credit cards.

DELIVER DIGITAL EXPERIENCES

Power secure digital payments with tokenization, so customers can pay, access accounts and use self-service card controls 24/7 on any device.

DRIVE EFFICIENCY

Achieve growth for less cost by eliminating the burden of separate vendors for loyalty, fraud protection, card production and network services.

GAIN CONTROL

Reduce the risk of fraud while staying compliant with the latest regulatory requirements for card management.
